

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
EXECUTIVE BRANCH ETHICS COMMISSION
CASE 14-020

IN RE: JEFFREY M. DEAN
ALLEGED VIOLATION OF KRS CHAPTER 11A

INITIATING ORDER
Initiation of Administrative Proceeding
And Formal Complaint

The Executive Branch Ethics Commission (the "Commission"), upon its own motion, initiated a preliminary investigation of Jeffrey M. Dean (the "Respondent"), pursuant to KRS 11A.080(1), on May 19, 2014.

At all relevant times the Respondent was a "public servant" as defined in KRS 11A.010(9), and thus subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

The Commission initiated the preliminary investigation to determine whether it had sufficient probable cause to believe the Respondent violated provisions of KRS Chapter 11A, the Executive Branch Code of Ethics (also referred to herein as the "Ethics Code").

The Commission focused its investigation upon the Respondent's possible violation of the Ethics Code by using or attempting to use his influence in any matter which involves a substantial conflict between his personal interest and his duties in the public interest; by influencing a public agency in derogation of the state at large; using his official position or office to obtain financial gain for himself; using his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself in derogation of the public interest; failing to avoid all conduct which might in any way lead members of the general public to conclude that he is using his official position to further his professional or private interest; and without the approval of his appointing authority, accepting outside employment from any person or business that does business with or is regulated by the state agency for which the public servant works or which he supervises.

The Commission notified the Respondent of the preliminary investigation by letter dated May 23, 2014. During the course of the investigation, the Commission found probable cause to believe that violations of KRS Chapter 11A had occurred and voted on July 14, 2014, to initiate an administrative proceeding, pursuant to KRS 11A.080(4)(b) and KRS Chapter 13B, to determine whether the Respondent violated the Ethics Code as set forth in the Allegations of Violations, attached hereto and incorporated fully herein as Appendix A to this Initiating Order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. This Initiating Order and Appendix shall be served on the Respondent pursuant to KRS 13B.050(2) by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of the Respondent.
2. The Respondent shall file his answer to this Initiating Order within twenty (20) days from the date of service, verifying the truth and accuracy of any answer submitted.
3. The Respondent shall appear at a hearing to be scheduled by subsequent order and be prepared to defend against the Commission's allegations that he committed the Ethics Code violations set forth in the Allegation of Violations, attached hereto and incorporated fully herein as Appendix A to this Initiating Order.
4. The Commission will request the designation of a Hearing Officer by the Administrative Hearings Branch of the Office of the Attorney General, 1024 Capital Center Drive, Suite 200, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601-8204.
5. The Commission is represented by Kathryn H. Gabhart, General Counsel, and John R. Steffen, Executive Director and co-Counsel. They may be contacted through the Commission's office at (502) 564-7954.

6. All original material shall be submitted to the Executive Branch Ethics Commission, #3 Fountain Place, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601. A copy of all materials shall be served on the designated Hearing Officer.

7. The Respondent has the right to legal counsel during this proceeding. If the Respondent retains legal counsel, that person shall file an appearance with the Commission, and thereafter all correspondence from the Commission to the Respondent shall be mailed or delivered to the Respondent's attorney.

8. The Respondent has the right to examine upon request, at least five (5) days prior to the hearing, a list of witnesses the Commission expects to call at the hearing, any evidence that will be used at the hearing and any exculpatory information in the Commission's possession.

9. The Respondent has the right to subpoena witnesses on his own behalf. If the Respondent subpoenas witnesses, he shall pay for all costs associated with the subpoenas' issuance, including any applicable witness fees.

10. If the Respondent fails to attend or participate as required at any stage of the administrative hearing process without good cause shown, he may be held in default pursuant to KRS 13B.050(3)(h).

11. The Respondent has a right to appeal any final Commission order to the Franklin Circuit Court within thirty (30) days of service.

12. This proceeding is subject to KRS Chapter 11A, the Commission's regulations, the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B, and any Order issued by the Commission or its hearing officer issued during this administrative proceeding.

APPENDIX A CASE NO. 14-020
INITIATING ORDER

ALLEGATION OF VIOLATIONS

The Respondent, Jeffrey M. Dean, was at all relevant times an employee of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, serving in the Department of Juvenile Justice ("Department"), Justice and Public Safety Cabinet. As such, the Respondent was subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. KRS 11A.010(9)(h).

During the course of its preliminary investigation, the Commission found probable cause to believe that Jeffrey M. Dean committed the following violations:

COUNT I

Jeffrey M. Dean, during his course of employment as a Licensed Psychological Associate II, Department of Juvenile Justice, Justice and Public Safety Cabinet, influenced a public agency in derogation of the state at large; used his official position to obtain financial gain for himself; used his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself in derogation of the public interest; and failed to avoid all conduct which might in any way lead members of the general public to conclude that he was using his official position to further his professional or private interest.

Specifically, between August through December of 2013, Dean was assigned to perform counseling visits with juveniles who had been identified as needing sex offender counseling. On at least nineteen (19) occasions, Dean failed to perform visits with five (5) separate juveniles that Dean later indicated to his supervisor and on documentation he submitted to the Department that he had performed.

These facts constitute violations of KRS 11A.020(1)(b), (c), and (d), and KRS 11A.020(2).

KRS 11A.020(1)(b), (c), and (d), and (2) provide:

- (1) No public servant, by himself or through others, shall knowingly:
 - (b) Use or attempt to use any means to influence a public agency in derogation of the state at large;
 - (c) Use his official position or office to obtain financial gain for himself or any members of the public servant's family; or
 - (d) Use or attempt to use his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself or others in derogation of the public interest at large.
- (2) If a public servant appears before a state agency, he shall avoid all conduct which might in any way lead members of the general public to conclude that he is using his official position to further his professional or private interest.

COUNT II

Jeffrey M. Dean, during his course of employment as a Licensed Psychological Associate II, Department of Juvenile Justice, Justice and Public Safety Cabinet, influenced a public agency in derogation of the state at large; used his official position to obtain financial gain for himself; used his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself in derogation of the public interest; and failed to avoid all conduct which might in any way lead members of the general public to conclude that he was using his official position to further his professional or private interest.

Specifically, between August through December of 2013, Dean used his official position to falsify official documentation in order to make it appear that he was performing his job duties when in fact he was not. Dean submitted monthly activity reports to his supervisor that were inaccurate in order to make it appear that he was performing bi-monthly visits with juveniles that were assigned to him who were supposed to be receiving sex offender counseling from Dean.

Dean then submitted falsified travel vouchers consistent with the falsified documentation and inaccurate activity reports for which he received reimbursement. Further, Dean submitted falsified timesheets to reflect that he had performed his job duties for the times that he did not actually perform the visits with the juveniles for which he was compensated.

These facts constitute violations of KRS 11A.020(1)(b), (c), and (d), and KRS 11A.020(2).

KRS 11A.020(1)(b), (c), and (d), and (2) provide:

- (1) No public servant, by himself or through others, shall knowingly:
 - (b) Use or attempt to use any means to influence a public agency in derogation of the state at large;
 - (c) Use his official position or office to obtain financial gain for himself or any members of the public servant's family; or
 - (d) Use or attempt to use his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself or others in derogation of the public interest at large.
- (2) If a public servant appears before a state agency, he shall avoid all conduct which might in any way lead members of the general public to conclude that he is using his official position to further his professional or private interest.
