

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
EXECUTIVE BRANCH ETHICS COMMISSION
CASE NO. 14-009

IN RE: KENDALL WILLIAMS
ALLEGED VIOLATION OF KRS CHAPTER 11A

INITIATING ORDER
Initiation of Administrative Proceeding
And Formal Complaint

The Executive Branch Ethics Commission (the “Commission”), upon its own motion, initiated a preliminary investigation of Kendall Williams (the “Respondent”), pursuant to KRS 11A.080(1), on November 15, 2013.

At all relevant times the Respondent was a “public servant” as defined in KRS 11A.010(9), and thus subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

The Commission initiated the preliminary investigation to determine whether it has sufficient probable cause to believe the Respondent violated provisions of KRS Chapter 11A, the Executive Branch Code of Ethics (also referred to herein as the “Ethics Code”).

The Commission focused its investigation upon the Respondent’s possible violation of the Ethics Code by using his influence in a matter that involved a substantial conflict between his personal or private interest and his duties in the public interest; influencing a public agency in derogation of the state at large; using his official position to give himself a financial gain and an advantage in derogation of the public interest at large; using his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself in derogation of the public interest; failing to avoid all conduct which might in any way lead members of the general public to conclude that he was using his official position to further his professional or private interest.

The Commission notified the Respondent of the preliminary investigation by letter dated November 20, 2013. During the course of the investigation, the Commission found probable cause to believe that violations of KRS Chapter 11A had occurred and voted on January 27, 2014, to initiate an administrative proceeding, pursuant to KRS 11A.080(4)(b) and KRS Chapter 13B, to determine whether the Respondent violated the Ethics Code as set forth in the Allegations of Violations, attached hereto and incorporated fully herein as Appendix A to this Initiating Order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. This Initiating Order and Appendix shall be served on the Respondent pursuant to KRS 13B.050(2) by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of the Respondent.
2. The Respondent shall file his answer to this Initiating Order within twenty (20) days from the date of service, verifying the truth and accuracy of any answer submitted.
3. The Respondent shall appear at a hearing to be scheduled by subsequent order and be prepared to defend against the Commission's allegations that he committed the Ethics Code violations set forth in the Allegation of Violations, attached hereto and incorporated fully herein as Appendix A to this Initiating Order.
4. The Commission will request the designation of a Hearing Officer by the Administrative Hearings Branch of the Office of the Attorney General, 1024 Capital Center Drive, Suite 200, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601-8204.
5. The Commission is represented by Kathryn H. Gabhart, General Counsel, and John R. Steffen, Executive Director and co-Counsel. They may be contacted through the Commission's office at (502) 564-7954.

6. All original material shall be submitted to the Executive Branch Ethics Commission, #3 Fountain Place, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601. A copy of all materials shall be served on the designated Hearing Officer.

7. The Respondent has the right to legal counsel during this proceeding. If the Respondent retains legal counsel, that person shall file an appearance with the Commission, and thereafter all correspondence from the Commission to the Respondent shall be mailed or delivered to the Respondent's attorney.

8. The Respondent has the right to examine upon request, at least five (5) days prior to the hearing, a list of witnesses the Commission expects to call at the hearing, any evidence that will be used at the hearing and any exculpatory information in the Commission's possession.

9. The Respondent has the right to subpoena witnesses on his own behalf. If the Respondent subpoenas witnesses, he shall pay for all costs associated with the subpoenas' issuance, including any applicable witness fees.

10. If the Respondent fails to attend or participate as required at any stage of the administrative hearing process without good cause shown, he may be held in default pursuant to KRS 13B.050(3)(h).

11. The Respondent has a right to appeal any final Commission order to the Franklin Circuit Court within thirty (30) days of service.

12. This proceeding is subject to KRS Chapter 11A, the Commission's regulations, the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B, and any Order issued by the Commission or its hearing officer issued during this administrative proceeding.

So ordered this 27th day of January 2014.

APPENDIX A
CASE NO. 14-009
INITIATING ORDER

ALLEGATION OF VIOLATIONS

The Respondent, Kendall Williams, was at all relevant times an employee of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, serving at the Bowling Green Group Home, Department of Juvenile Justice, Justice and Public Safety Cabinet. As such, the Respondent was subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. KRS 11A.010(9)(h).

During the course of its preliminary investigation, the Commission found probable cause to believe that Kendall Williams committed the following violations:

COUNT I

Kendall Williams, during his course of employment as the Superintendent, Bowling Green Group Home, Department of Juvenile Justice, Justice and Public Safety Cabinet, used his official position to give himself a financial gain and an advantage in derogation of the public interest at large; used his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself in derogation of the public interest; and failed to avoid all conduct which might in any way lead members of the general public to conclude that he was using his official position to further his professional or private interest.

Specifically, in March of 2013, Williams, through the course of his duties, acquired a $100 bill from a youth. Williams, upon the youth's release from the group home, transported the youth to a bank in order for the youth to cash a paycheck the youth had received, from which Williams took a $100 bill. Williams indicated to the youth that the $100 bill would be considered as a "donation" to the group home, but never created the proper paper work to designate the $100 bill as a donation and placed the $100 bill in his desk for his own use. The youth contacted Williams to request the $100 bill be returned to him; however, Williams refused and proceeded to thwart the youth's communications with the facility. While in Williams possession, the $100 bill was never used as a donation for the facility.

These facts constitute violations of KRS 11A.020(1)(b), (c), and (d), and KRS 11A.020(2).

KRS 11A.020(1)(a), (b), (c) and (d) provide:

- (1) No public servant, by himself or through others, shall knowingly:
  - (b) Use or attempt to use any means to influence a public agency in derogation of the state at large;
  - (c) Use his official position or office to obtain financial gain for himself or any members of the public servant's family; or
  - (d) Use or attempt to use his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself or others in derogation of the public interest at large.

KRS 11A.020(2) provides:

- (2) If a public servant appears before a state agency, he shall avoid all conduct which might in any way lead members of the general public to conclude that he is using his official position to further his professional or private interest.
