APPENDIX A
CASE NO. 14-012
INITIATING ORDER

ALLEGATION OF VIOLATIONS

The Respondent, Steve Marple, was at all relevant times an employee of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, serving in the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources (“Department”), Tourism, Arts and Heritage Cabinet. As such, the Respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. KRS 11A.010(9)(h).

During the course of its preliminary investigation, the Commission found probable cause to believe that Steve Marple committed the following violations:

COUNT I

Steve Marple, during his course of employment as the Manager, Pfeiffer Fish Hatchery, Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, Tourism, Arts and Heritage Cabinet, influenced a public agency in derogation of the state at large; and used his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for others in derogation of the public interest.

Specifically, in the Fall of 2012 and Spring of 2013, Marple reserved fish from the Pfeiffer Fish Hatchery that were intended for use in Department programs for delivery to private ponds located on the personal property of a member of the Kentucky Fish and Wildlife Commission in Somerset, Kentucky, and the friend of a member of the Kentucky Fish and Wildlife Commission in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, and a former Department employee located in Shelby County, Kentucky. The fish were provided to the Commission member, the friend of the Commission member, the former employee outside of the provisions of any statute or regulation and would not have been made available to members of the general public.

These facts constitute violations of KRS 11A.020(1)(b) and (d).

KRS 11A.020(1)(b) and (d) provide:

- (1) No public servant, by himself or through others, shall knowingly:
 - (b) Use or attempt to use any means to influence a public agency in derogation of the state at large; or
 - (d) Use or attempt to use his official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment for himself or others in derogation of the public interest at large.
