Question 15: Provide the name and address of all sources of gross income exceeding $1,000 from any one source to you or your spouse or dependent child, which have not been reported on the Statement in your responses to Questions 1 through 10.

NOTE: "Gross income" is value received that is subject to taxation. "Income" is defined by KRS 11A.010(6) as "any money or thing of value received or to be received as a claim on future services, whether in the form of a fee, salary, expense allowance, forbearance, forgiveness, interest, dividend, royalty, rent, capital gain, or any other form of compensation or any combination thereof."

In general, gross income is any payment in return for services or as a return on capital investment. The payment could be anything of value (services, goods, cash). Examples are: salary, interest on checking and savings accounts, stock dividends, and possibly gain from the sale of a home, automobile or other property or goods. The individual addresses of publicly traded securities need not be reported. "Publicly traded securities" means securities for which a price is listed in the daily edition of the Wall Street Journal. The names of the securities held by public-traded mutual funds need not be reported but the name(s) of the mutual fund(s) which provide you with gross income must be reported.

Question 16: List the name and address of each person or entity that you or your spouse represented or intervened on behalf of before the state agency for which you work or supervise or before any entity of state government for which you serve in a decision-making capacity. NOTE: "Real property" means property that is land or which is attached to the land, such as a house or other structure. It does not include automobiles, boats, stocks, bonds, or money. To have an interest in real estate includes:

1. Holding the title to the property, whether or not encumbered by one or more mortgages;
2. Being granted the right to use the property pursuant to a life estate interest;
3. Holding an easement or right of way;
4. Being a co-owner.

Question 18: Provide the name of any person or entity that provided you, your spouse or a dependent child with gifts of money or property with a retail value of more than two hundred dollars ($200) from any one source during the reporting year. If gifts were received from a single source and have a cumulative value of two hundred dollars ($200) during the reporting year, you must disclose that fact. Gifts from family members do not need to be disclosed.

NOTE: "Gifts of money or property" means a payment, loan, subscription, advance, deposit of money, services, or anything of value, unless consideration of equal or greater value is received; "gift" does not include gifts from family members, campaign contributions, the waiver of a registration fee for a presenter at a conference or training described in KRS 45A.097(5), gifts received by a public servant on behalf of his or her agency pursuant to KRS 45A.097, or door prizes that are available to the public. 9 KAR 1:010, Section 1(8).

You do not have to list the value of the gift. A gift is no longer a gift if you pay the face value or fair market value for the item.

Question 19: Provide the name and address of each person or entity you owe at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000) if the debt was incurred for a purpose other than procurement of consumer goods.

NOTE: "Consumer goods" means any item either tangible or intangible that can be purchased; "consumer goods" do not include purchases of real property or real estate. 9 KAR 1:010, Section 1(6).

A "consumer good" is something purchased primarily for personal, family or household purposes. Such goods are not intended for resale or further use in the production of other products. Examples of consumer goods are: clothing, personal automobiles, household furnishings and household electronic equipment.
